

LIFE AND TRAINING IN AMERICAN CAMPS

ciated more as the years go by and the boys who are now veterans of the World War have had a reunion and renewed old friendships.

---

CHANGES IN STAFF OFFICERS AND COMPANY COMMANDERS.

Many changes occurred in the staff during the regiment's existence. The changes began when Captain Duncan was succeeded as adjutant by Captain Bynum. Lieut. Col. J. Malcolm Graham, who never joined the regiment, was succeeded by Lieut. Col. Claude S. Fries, November 6, 1917. Lieutenant Colonel Fries was succeeded by Lieut. Col. Earl W. Tanner, November 14, 1917. Lieutenant Colonel Tanner was in turn succeeded by Lieut. Col. Frank Halstead, March 1, 1918. Colonel Shuttleworth, under whose command and leadership the regiment had been organized, and who had won a warm place in the hearts of both officers and men, was succeeded by Colonel Hansford L. Threlkeld, March 26, 1918. Colonel Shuttleworth was at that time discharged from the National Army and assigned to the First Infantry, United States Army, as lieutenant colonel, and sent to the United States Army post in Honolulu. Colonel Threlkeld was assigned to the regiment April 10, 1918, and assumed command the same day. The regiment was under